

Wednesday July 2nd 5.30pm

Illustrated lecture
'A History of Landscape Art'

Adrian Sumner

Frederic Edwin Church: The Icebergs

This lecture explains and explores our love affair with landscape and how our attitude to nature and our relationship with it are revealed when the history of landscape painting is studied.

John Constable and JMW Turner, as the 'inventors' of the English Landscape, will feature prominently in this lecture, but the work of Bruegel, Ruisdael, Corot, Monet, Gauguin, Van Gogh, Cezanne, Dali, and dozens of other artists will also be included.

Ticket price £10.00

Young people under 16 £3.00

Includes tea and cake at 5.00pm

Please book in advance. Payment is 'on the door'

To reserve tickets

Please leave a clear message on 01286 830 220

Or e mail soniblundell@aol.com

This is a FOBA event in aid of Fort restoration work

Accessible to wheelchairs